

MANAGER (FORMER LEVEL 2) CERTIFICATION IN FOOD PROTECTION

The ServSafe Course from The Educational Foundation of The National Restaurant Association is an advanced food safety course designed for owners, operators and managers who want to become certified in food protection. It is recognized as the “industry standard” and as the leading class to certify food handlers. This class is designed to meet the Ohio Department of Health requirements to obtain Manager Certification in Food Protection.

Participants must attend all classes and pass the final exam to receive a ServSafe® Certificate and Ohio Department of Health Manager Certification Certificate.

LOCATION: Shisler Conference Center
OARDC Campus
1680 Madison Avenue
Wooster, OH 44691

DATE: Monday and Tuesday, October 21 and 22, 2019

TIME: 8:30 A.M. – 4:30 P.M.

COURSE PROVIDER: Suzanne McFadden, R.S., Instructor of ServSafe® for over 25 years with Canton City Health Department and Nutrition Plus, Inc. This class is being taught in cooperation with the Wayne County Health Department.

TUITION: $179.00 Course fee includes textbook, other instructional materials and certification exam. Coffee and snacks provided; lunch on your own the 1st day, lunch provided 2nd day.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10TH CLASS SIZE IS LIMITED!!

Please complete and detach this form & send with $179 check or money order made payable to:

Suzanne McFadden, P.O. Box 66, Winesburg, OH 44690

Questions? Call Sue at 480-294-3491 or email smcfadden.oh@gmail.com

(Confirmation will be made by phone or e-mail approximately one week prior to class)

PARTICIPANT NAME _____

FACILITY NAME _____ PHONE _____

FACILITY ADDRESS _____

EMAIL _____